Woman's Club to Become National Organization.
The afternoon business meeting of the Palatka club unanimously approved the action of the uninstructed convention of Women's Clubs of Orange Springs, in offering a club for membership in the organization—the Generation of Women's Clubs. The present dues of fifty cents per capita to 50 cents. The estimate of the benefit derived from such membership to our state more representative of the biennial convention, becomes a member and of the great parent body, national outlook; it receives Federation News, keeps in touch with the plans of the general federation, wider companionship, adds greater wisdom, nobler and a hundred times more efficiency, and makes it possible for the right woman to hold of the poverty or wealth, to command the by-laws of the Federation of Women's Clubs, and to pass unanimously, and her stand 100 per cent with Georgia, Illinois and to rearrange departmental plans, thereby insuring quick and successful working for the same and will attain success. The club is capable to development and may be carried on for several years. The club is capable to development and may be carried on for several years. Date of Becker-Kanner Wedding Announced.
The following invitations are being received by the friends here and elsewhere of the Becker and Kanner families:
Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kanner request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Lillian Jane, to Mr. Max M. Becker on Sunday evening, December thirty-first, at eight-thirty o'clock. Woman's Club, Palatka, Florida.

Reception immediately after ceremony.
The date of this wedding was announced to a number of close friends of the bride in a novel manner Friday evening. The betrothal ceremony took place last New Year's day, but this was the first announcement of the exact date of the wedding.

Miss Ruth Kanner, the sister of the bride-to-be, invited the members of the T. M. O. S. club to gather at the word of it was heard with much interest. She gave a brief outline of the work carried on by each division of the federation, quoting the most impressive words of the various educators. She stressed Rabbi Kaplan's address of the Tuberculosis association, telling of the almost unbelievable work which is being done through the sale of the penny seals. Mrs. Stallings expressed the hope that Palatka people would see great interest in the local sale of these seals. The federation expressed itself to the effect that school conditions are deplorable. Education of the young, and child welfare were the two subjects stressed throughout every program. Mrs. Stallings said that if Palatka people could have attended the convention and heard the constant pleas for the rights of the child, it would never be necessary to request contributions to this cause. Throughout the entire program ran a plea for a quare deal for the children of Florida.

Mrs. Duffenbaugh sang three exquisite selections beautifully for the club, adding greatly to the pleasure of the meeting.
A social hour was enjoyed, and sandwiches and coffee served by the social committee, of which Mrs. S. J. Hilburn is chairman.

Informal Auction.
Mrs. Goode M. Guerry entertained the members of the Weekly Auction club and a few other friends informally Friday afternoon at her home in Bungalow Park. Four tables were arranged for pivot auction in the living room, which was decorated with white chrysanthemums. During the game, scores were kept on tallies done in a chrysanthemum design.

Mrs. Goss Mattox, Mrs. J. W. Hart, Mrs. A. M. Hedick and Mrs. C. A. Anderson held high scores at the conclusion of the series of rubbers, and were awarded vanities as prizes.
After the game, Mrs. Guerry, assisted by Mrs. Wilkinson, served her guests with fruit salad, nut bread, saltines, olives and coffee.

Those present were Mesdames J. K. Culbreth, Ridley Wilkinson, Goss Mattox, H. A. Johnson, J. C. Calhoun, I. V. Walton, J. J. Sutherland, J. W. Hart, W. W. Tilghman, A. A. Corcoran, H. M. Fearnside, C. A. Anderson, A. M. Hedick, C. E. Anderson, Weldon S. Henley and J. S. Lisenby.

Miss Fowler Weds.
Palatkans will be interested in the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Frances Fowler, of Gainesville, to Mr. Charles Weir, of Asheville, N. C., yesterday. The ceremony was performed at Macon, Ga., yesterday, Miss Fowler having been a student at Wesleyan Female college there. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fowler, of Gainesville, and has visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Blake here. She is a young woman of charming personality.

Receiving Congratulations.
Mr. and Mrs. James L. Wilkinson, of West Palm Beach, are announcing the arrival of a little girl in their home and friends are extending congratulations.

The new arrival is a great-granddaughter of Colonel Robert W. Davis, of this city, and the happy news was received by him in a telegram. Mrs. Wilkinson, prior to her marriage, was Miss Margaret Willard, of Palatka, and has many friends in Gainesville who will join in offering their congratulations.—Gainesville Sun.

Why Take a Chance?
Getting a prescription filled doesn't seem such a problem, but it is a very vital thing to some one's life. All drug stores strive to follow the physician's exact directions, but sometimes they substitute. We don't. If we haven't got it we say so. Our pharmacists have had experience enough to know that this is the only thing to do.
Come To See Us
When you are down town, feel tired, need a cooling or a warming drink or some soothing confection walk to our place and get a welcome that is warmer than a stove. We want to serve, and we want our friends to come to see us.

MRS. LULA VANN FULTON, ARK.
Suggests to Suffering Women the Road to Health
Fulton, Arkansas.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a soreness in my side. I would suffer so badly every month from my waist down that I could not be on my feet half the time. I was not able to do my work without help. I saw your Vegetable Compound advertised in a newspaper and gave it a fair trial. Now I am able to do my work and don't even have a backache every month. I cannot praise your Vegetable Compound enough and highly recommend it to those who have troubles like mine. I am willing for these facts to be used as a testimonial to lead all who suffer with female troubles, as I did, to the right road to health."—Mrs. LULA VANN, Box 43, Fulton, Arkansas.
It is this sort of praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, given by word of mouth and by letter, one woman to another, that should cause you to consider taking this well-known medicine, if you are troubled with such symptoms as painful periods, weak, nervous feelings, miserable pains in your back, and cannot work at certain times.
Here is a woman who is so grateful and glad to be relieved from a painful and nerve racking physical condition that she wishes to tell all sick women.
